- I. Introductions
- II. Discussion of Request for Proposal (RFP) process by Indiana Department of Administration
- III. Discussion of Minority and Women's Business Enterprise Requirements
- IV. Description of the RFP:

During a public health or other emergency, the Indiana State Department of Health (ISDH) may request and receive drugs, medical material and other assets from the federal government. The ISDH seeks an inventory management and control system to support the receipt and further distribution of such assets. An automated method of apportionment is also sought, for which significant customization is expected.
